Chinese Scholars on U. C. Summer Faculty

Two distinguished Chinese scholars will be members of the faculty of the 1944 summer session on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, according to Dr. J. Harold Williams, director of summer sessions.

In the department of political science, Dr. Chen Shou-Yi, formerly of the National Peking University, and now professor of Chinese culture at Pomona College and Claremont College's graduate school in California, will lecture on Chinese political theories, and in addition will conduct a special course on problems of the Pacific area which will be limited to graduate students.

Dr. Yu-Shan Han, on leave as professor of history at St. John's University in Shanghai, and visiting lecturer in history on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, will lecture for summer session graduate students on the history of British India.

Requests for enrollment information should be addressed to the director of summer sessions, 405 Hilgard ave., Los Angeles 24.

LOMITA-SAN PEDRO P.T.A. COUNCIL MEET HELD TUESDAY

P.T.A. is in business for children and our war-time job is to help keep it on an even keel," stated Mrs. Edward T. Walker, Tenth District P.T.A. president, as she addressed delegates at the annual meeting of Lomita-San Pedro Council Tuesday morning in Lomita Elementary school, where she was the election officer and guest speaker.

Mrs. M. C. Isaacson was re-elected council president. Serving with her will be Mrs. John R. Garner, first vice president; Mrs. John Scoclich, second vice president; Mrs. O. M. Benton, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Donaher, treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Bowen, auditor, and Mrs. O. I. Johnson, historian.

The council voted to send $10 to the juvenile protective secretary of the district to help purchase a motion picture projector for juvenile hall.

A committee composed of Mrs. C. B. Harris, Kenneth Schwartz, Don Rice and William Hall reported on plans for the annual June breakfast meeting.

New local presidents introduced were Mrs. George Tamble, Bandini; Clifford Vine, Cabrillo; Eldridge Walker, Harbor City; W. E. Wilmoth, Leland; E. Kuhns, Lomita Elementary; Wray Nansel, Orange Street. Other P.T.A. units represented were Barton Hill and auxiliary, Fern Avenue, 15th Street 7th Street, Torrance Elementary and Walteria.

Lunch was served by the Lomita Elementary board and guests present were Mrs. Paul Calkins, Eagle Rock High school and Griffith Council; J. J. Millard and V. E. Hopkins of the district; Max Schatz, Narbonne president; R. Thompson, Gateway president, and Jean Mosher of the Lomita Progress.

VFW Will Aid Vets' Welfare

For the first time in 45 years the Veterans of Foreign Wars are asking public help in their welfare work in a drive for funds to meet the multitudinous demands for help, advice and counsel, according to Eugene Beckman of Lomita post 1622.

The government of the United States has officially named the Veterans of Foreign Wars as one of four agencies to act as the liaison between the returned veteran and his government—to provide the aid and counsel which will insure the proper benefits and services for those who did so much to earn them; to make certain that everywhere throughout the country, in cities and cross-road towns, there is someone responsible to the servicemen for his welfare—a person—a man who talks his language—who in 1918 lived through the same topsy-turvy world he is facing.

Plans for the rehabilitation program are already well defined. The funds now being raised will provide:

A service and welfare program in each state, to be directed and coordinated by state service and liaison officers employed on a full-time basis.

An active service and welfare officer in every Veterans of Foreign Wars post, especially trained to assist all needy ex-servicemen and their dependents in matters of rehabilitation and employment.

Expansion of the housing facilities of the organization's National Home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., to shelter additional widows and orphans of members. Present capacity, 200 occupants, will fall far short of the need created by growing casualty lists. New cottages must be erected at the earliest possible date.

Gifts from everyone are needed so that this time, when Johnny comes marching home, we'll be ready to serve him as he has served us.

TRIXIE... the youngster who will surprise audiences at the Pan-Pacific Auditorium, where the "Ice-Capades of 1944" opens its 1944 run tonight. Her performance would be startling enough if she only completed her difficult juggling tricks, but she does all of these on skates.

County to Purchase Frontage on Beach

On motion of Supervisor Oscar Hauge at Tuesday's meeting of the board of supervisors, a resolution was adopted declaring intention of the board to purchase 1231.66 feet of beach frontage contiguous to the county owned beach at Redondo from the Huntington-Redondo Company. The property in question is a portion of the beach land which is at present subject to a ten year lease made in 1938 between the company as lessor and the county. Acquisition of the lands proposed to be purchased has the effect of reducing the county's annual obligation under the lease approximately $4,000 a year. The purchase will be consummated May 31.

On motion of Supervisor Hauge the board of supervisors at Tuesday's meeting placed $200,000 in the preliminary budget for the year 1944-45 for the acquisition of land for public beaches and $50,000 for the protection and rehabilitation of beaches in the county of Los Angeles, expenditures to be made on a basis of the matching of funds by the state or of any interested city.
